a long time, since the days of ds. They have a lot of access, fat, all with Hell.
With says accesses with AD we work for 25. Without AD - for 15 in their direction.
Well, maybe 20 will take if they are just a lot and at my request, like my friend.
They stubbornly refused that this is not enough, they even offered the following: they give access, we pick up the date and lock + negotiations. We like 35 ip 65. I all explained, all that C said passed, the bidding, there and then, korochey offered them so that once the surplus is at them - we can get for 20 without AD now. Well, and maybe for 30 with AD. I say so and so, we have cooler software and a cooler team, let's try it, maybe the percentage and less than others but we will surprise you with payments)))) In general to what all it. <Stern> well, hors can paid, randomly. And the data of a particular company can be taken out only by paying for it.

The cost is determined by the number of remaining files * let's say a buck3 per file. And then by the auction system. Let's say there was a fuss about some firm - we sell to the highest bidder in the last 24-48 hours. I think so, that didn't pay ok. It's one thing to get the offices back up and running - it's another thing when there is an open daily leak of fresh personal and work data for a month What do you

Sevastopol to this dude in the best case, because of the covid there are big get the new 410 there. They will be in Sevastopol in a week.

the matter is that we don't need the decryptor but we are very interested in paying something to not have our data released. We are still just trying to figure out how much we can scrape together to offer. While we are doing that, my boss wanted me to ask you whether or not we will get access to our data that you took once we paid anything? We have understandably done some research and we have seen that in some cases, the data is given back to people once a payment has been made.
We also noticed in the file tree that you sent over that some of the file paths look like they were from your local system. We would also like assurances that our data has been deleted from local systems as well.
